forceful manner, making a splendid impression. It was one of the best and most profitable meetings of the campaign hereabouts.

HOME SABBATH SCHOOL WORKERS.

Annual Convention of the Township Association Sunday Evening at the First Church.

The first convention of the Decatur Sabbath School Association, which embraces in its membership the schools of all the Protestant churches in the city, was held in the audience room at the First M. E. Church on Sunday evening in the presence of a congregation of Christian people which filled every seat in the vest room. The exercises began with a beautiful voluntary by the double quartette choir, led by Mr. Johnson, followed by reading a scriptural lesson by Mr. J.
R. Gorin, and prayer by Rev. C. B. Roberts, pastor of the Baptist church.

The announcements were made by Mr.
N. E. Adams, president of the township association.

"The Word and Our Commission," was the subject of the opening address by Rev. F. W. Pinkerton, pastor of the Christian church. He spoke of the commercial value of the Christian religion, and the importance of active Christian work was enlarged upon in a forcible and elegant manner.

Prof. J. N. Wilkinson's subject was "How to Study and Teach the Word." Lessons are taught in this life how we should live here and how we should live for the hereafter. The speaker offered a few suggestions in teaching God's Word.

To the beginning systematic teaching should be observed. We should constantly keep before our classes and our own minds that our Saviour's wanderings had definite time and places. Patience is needed in Bible study; all the problems should be carefully considered and studied carefully and patiently. In conclusion the speaker referred to the glowing tribute paid to the poetry and imagery within the Bible by Rev. Pinkerton, and added that he could recommend nothing better than that readers of the Bible should commit to memory as many of the verses as possible. We should sustain the Bible study, and then we as teachers will be doubly equipped for effective work.

"Music—'Let us Walk in the Light,' by the quartette.
Rev. Mr. Gillett, of Cincinnati, delivered an address on "Difficulties to be Overcome." He enumerated a great many difficulties that face Sabbath school workers. He indicated a few difficulties by citing regions where there is want of Sabbath schools and places of worship.

The remedy is more agitation, more enthusiasm, more consecration. The specific difficulties in the way of successful work are the character of the work, the conditions under which teaching is attempted, securing order, proper deportment, etc.

The superintendent may accomplish much to make a successful and growing school. Secretaries, treasurers and preachers should not visit class rooms during lesson hours to confuse and distract attention by their entrance and exit. Teachers should be better prepared for their responsible work. There should be more training schools for teachers, the more the better, and above all special efforts should be made to secure the conversion of those attending the schools.

"Consecration and Success" was the topic assigned Rev. Mr. Schoening, pastor of the German Methodist Church. He treated the subject from a business standpoint, and offered many suggestions of practical value to active, ambitious teachers. The consecrated teacher will meet with everlasting success, for he will receive a priceless crown.

Music—"Sweeping Thru' the Gates of the New Jerusalem" by the choir.
An essay, "The Teacher's Duty," by Mrs. R. E. Colwell, came next. It was a carefully prepared paper which was well read by the lady. She touched upon many faults observed in inexperienced or careless teachers, and offered numerous valuable hints that, if acted upon, can only result in good.

"Work and Reward" was the subject of an instructive address by Mr. J. E. Saxton.
The speaker referred to the extent of the Sabbath School work; that wherever the banners of the cross float there may Sabbath Schools be found. He gave some figures as to the growth of the work in foreign countries, and also alluded to the increased interest and growth of the work in the United States, particularly in Illinois. He exhorted teachers to more carnest and effective work, and in conclusion spoke of the priceless reward in store for the faithful servants of the Master.

"Echo Song" by the double quartette.
Four of the singers stood before the organ and sang, and as they ceased the other four choristers, who could not be seen, echoed the lines.

The address on "Sunday School of Saloon—Which?" was omitted owing to the absence of Rev. C. Powell, who was assigned to discuss the topic. He was unable to reach the church in time, as he had gone out into the country to fill an appointment.

President Adams then addressed the convention for a few minutes upon the importance of united Sabbath School work, and upon motion of Mr. Gorin it was decided to call a meeting of vice-presidents to effect a permanent organization by electing officers and the appointment of committees.

The convention adjourned with singing "Shall We Gather at the River" and the benediction by Rev. Roberts.

The two-year old son of Mr. William Eberman, who resides on the Joseph Troutman farm, three miles west of Decaturs, near Stevens Creek, was accidentally drowned this (Monday) forenoon.
The creek is about 200 yards from the house and the little boy was out doors drawing about a toy wagon. Mrs. Eber-man after while missed her son, and on looking for him she saw that the little wagon was in the creek lodged against some brush. The boy was nowhere to be seen. That he was drowned in the stream there cannot be any doubt. All attempts to recover the body had proved fruitless up to noon to-day.

Charged with Robbery.
This forenoon Michael Carroll had his youngest son, Daniel Carroll, arrested on a charge of robbery. Dan is accused of stealing $50 in cash and a gold watch from his father on Saturday night. The boy, who is nearly 20 years of age, was taken in custody by Constable Weisell, and when searched he had $35.50 on his person which he claims is his own money.
Dan says he is innocent of the charge preferred against him, and is now in the county jail awaiting a preliminary hearing before a Justice of the Peace.

Leasur and the Telephone.
The enterprise of building a telephone line between Decatur and Springfield, which line is now in successful operation, has awakened renewed interest in "phone matters. Incredulous people remark that they don't take much stock in telephones (because perhaps they have never used them), but they will talk differently when business interests will force them to use the wires. The building of the line to Springfield completes one of the largest telephone circuits in the west. It embraces Decatur, Harrisburg, Nanticoke, Illiopolis, Springfield, and other points in Sangamon county; Lincoln, Mt. Pleasant, Broadwell and Elkhart, in Logan county; Bloomington and other towns in Mc-Lean county; Petersburg, Athens, Talla-hassie, Greenville and Sweetwater, in Menard county; Canton and Farmington, in Fulton county; Yates City, Knoxville and Galesburg, in Knox county. Another line from Lincoln to Delavan in Tazewell county, is in progress of construction, and when completed Peoria, Pekin and other intermediate places will be connected with the large list already mentioned.
Every town of prominence in commercial circles in this part of the state will be connected within ninety days.

Amusements Ahead.
The original government scout, Hon.
W. F. Cody, and the "Buffalo Bill Combination" will appear at the opera house to-morrow night in the new sensational border drama, "Bill's Pledge." Don't fail to witness this performance. Popular prices.

On Thursday evening, Nov. 2, will appear the John A. Stevens Comic Opera Company. They will give us the "Jolly Bachelors," an opera full of enchanting music, lovely melodies, crisp and witty dialogue, with the finest comic opera cast ever put together on any stage, including the beautiful Miss Jeannie Winston, and a grand chorus of trained voices. Admission 50 and 75 cents; reserved seats now on sale at $1.00 each.

The always welcome Atkinson "Jolli-tics" will visit Decatur on Friday evening, Nov. 3, and give one of their splendid entertainments at the opera house. This troupe of artists so well known here that it needs no words of commendation.
Popular prices.

Miss Helen Tupper.
We announced a few days ago the return of this young lady to her home in Decatur, after a successful tour through Wisconsin, as a dramatic reader. It will gratify her many friends here to read a few of the flattering notices she received from the press of the cities she visited.

The Shuboygan Herald of Oct. 20th, says:
"The Helen Tupper was greeted by a full house last Tuesday evening at the room of the Shuboygan Library Association, on the occasion of her first appearance as an elocutionist before a Shuboy-gan audience. Miss Tupper held the attention of the entire audience from first to last. The lady has a fine stage presence and a voice of unusual compass and flexibility. Her personation of the Naughty Little Girl was most admirably done, while at the other extreme, her conception and rendition of portions of the scene from Macbeth were really grand.
It is seldom that we hear public readers who are able to present selections as well as differing in style and thought, in so effective a manner. She seemed to identify herself completely with her characters. With careful training Miss Tupper will take high rank as an elocution-ist. We predict for her a successful career."

The Shuboygan Times of the 21st says:
"Miss Tupper's selections were all thoroughly memorized, and being thus free from the shackles of the book, was free to give full expression to the sentiments uttered; and of these she made a judicious and graceful use. Her voice is clear, and in its natural tones melodious, and her enunciation remarkably distinct—three most attractive elements in a public speaker or singer. In a word, she has large natural ability as an elocution-ist, a good dramatic talent—as evinced in her reading of Lady Macbeth's soliloquy —is an excellent study with added experience and study will unquestionably make her mark in the profession which she has chosen as the line of her future effort."

CHARLES GRUBER was placed under arrest on Saturday last, charged with having assaulted a man named Richardson at the Matthes brickyard several months ago. Gruber will have a hearing before Justice Lowry this afternoon.

A New Base Ball League.
A meeting was held in Chicago on Friday for the formation of the Northwest Base Ball Association. Representatives from Springfield, Peoria and Quincy, Ill.; Bay City, East Saginaw and Grand Rapids, Michigan; Toledo, Ohio, and Fort Wayne, Indiana, were present. A temporary organization, known as the Western Base Ball League, was formed. The representatives from the cities named reported sentiments ranging from three thousand to ten thousand dollars for the support of the clubs. Another meeting will be held at Fort Wayne, Dec. 20.

TURN OUT!

AND HEAR THE TRUTH.

CAPT. J. H. ROWELL,
OF BLOOMINGTON,

Republican candidate for Congress, will make his last speech during the campaign in Macon county at the COURT HOUSE,
WEDNESDAY, NOV. 1,
At 7:30 P. M.

Everybody is invited to attend.
PERSONAL MENTION.

A. C. Douglas, of Bloomington, was in the city on Saturday.
J. Q. A. Odor is doing duty this week in the office of the county clerk.

J. R. Gorin presided at the Y. M. C. A. chapel yesterday afternoon. The subject was the 37th Psalm.

Arthur E. Kinney, who got home Saturday, says the sheep business in Kansas is booming.

Ed. B. Moore, who is in the U. S. Mail service as carrier at Topeka, Kansas, is in the city to-day.

Mrs. J. S. House, of Springfield, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Corneum, of this city.

Miss Flora Miller returned home Saturday from a three months' visit with relatives and friends at Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. D. Hinchcliffe, of St. Louis, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
D. H. Bruce and Mr. and Mrs. L. L.
Haworth.

Wm. W. Kelly, manager of the Charlotte Thompson company, in "The New Jane Eyre," here on Nov. 11th, is in the city to-day.

James C. Carder is home from Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he went for the benefit of his health, which is somewhat improved.

James A. Miller, proprietor of the paper warehouse, has returned home alone from an extended business trip in the far east. Yes, alone.

Frank H. Hall has tendered his resignation as second lieutenant of the Decatur Guards, on account of press of business, which prevents him from giving proper attention to military duty.

Mrs. H. W. Waggoner, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Hopping, at Pueblo, Colorado, and friends in Wichita, Kansas, returned home on Saturday. She was absent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Curtis have gone to Rochester, N. Y. Mr. Curtis will continue his journey to manufacturing centres in the east to purchase an immense lot of silverware novelties for the holiday trade.

James H. O'Neill and Charles A. Carter had a long and pleasant chat with Flint, the dandy catcher of the Chicago b. b. 9, Saturday. Mr. O'Neill took special pains to make the professional's short stay in Decatur agreeable.

Geo. B. Charles, general agent for Illinois for Rand, McNally & Co.'s "Indexed Atlas of the World," departed for Chicago Sunday morning. He will return to Decatur a week hence, and may locate here permanently. Mr. C. is meeting with fine success here in the sale of the Atlas book, which is universally recognized as the finest and most comprehensive work of the kind ever compiled. As a book of reference it has no equal.

The Randolph-Palmer Wedding.
A marriage of special interest to Decaturs people occurred at the home of the bride at Salina, Kansas, on Thursday evening, Oct. 26th, at 7:30 o'clock. The contracting parties were Mr. HENRY F.
RANDOLPH, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. F.
Randolph, of this city, and Miss MRS.
D. PALMER, only daughter of Colonel S.
M. Palmer. The wedding was strictly private. The happy couple went by way of Kansas City to Chicago. They will arrive in Decatur about Wednesday, Nov.
1st, when they will be pleased to receive their friends at the home of the groom, on the corner of Franklin and William streets.

DIED.
The following appeared in the Baltimore (Md.) Sun of October 26th: NICHOLSON—On 24th October, 1882, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with long and patient fortitude, HARRIET A. NICHOLSON, widow of John Nicholson, and youngest daughter of the late Harriet and James Tucker, (Esq.) (Baltimore, Washington D. C.) and Decatur, Ill.,
